

Govan through the Social Lens

Reframing the lens through PhotoVoice

A project with residents in Govan, Glasgow challenging social inequality and capturing how poverty impacts upon their lives and their hopes for the future.

Exhibition and Open Night Question & Answer Session

“A very thought provoking project not to be missed”

Issie Wilson.

“Eye for detail tone and images are fantastic”

Deborah Wark

Exhibition starts Monday 18th March until 3rd May 2019
Glasgow Kelvin College East End Campus
Haghill Road
Glasgow G31 3SR

Open night and Q&A with the makers of the Project will be held on Thursday 25th April 2019 between 5.00 - 7.00pm

For more information contact:

James Holloway: jamesholloway71@gmail.com

Frankie Frankgate: frankfrankgate@gmail.com

